PICKS EARLY MORN TO GET GROCERIES

Frank Kinney, of McQuady, Arrested For House-breaking and Placed Under $1,000 Bond.

Mr. Frank Kinney, 40 years old was caught in the act of taking groceries from Will Davis' store in McQuady on Tuesday morning about 4 o'clock.

It happened that a neighbor of Mr. Davis wanted to get in the store to telephone to Hardinsburg for a physician as a member of his family was ill. When the men opened the store they found Kinney in the act of getting groceries to supply his larder. Kinney left the eatables and escaped from the store and absconded himself. After a diligent search on the part of the inhabitants of McQuady he was found near the city limits hiding behind a root wad. He was captured and escorted to the railroad station to be taken to Hardinsburg. On the train going into Hardinsburg was Sheriff J. B. Carman, who took Kinney in charge.

Kinney was brought before Judge Kincheloe on the charge of house-breaking. The Judge placed him under a $1,000 bond. He was not able to give bond and was placed in the county jail to await his trial.

CITY BLANKETED WITH DEEP SNOW

Saturday Coldest Day of Winter. Heaviest Snowfall Since 1917-18.

Saturday, without any exceptions, was the worst day experienced here this winter. Following several days of delightful spring weather came a snow, which began falling Friday night and continued until 11 o'clock Saturday evening.

All day Saturday house-keepers were kept busy keeping the snow off of porches and front entrances. The biting stiff wind from the North made walking and riding very disagreeable. There was little traffic. On account of the roads, automobiles were dispensed with nearly altogether and only a few delivery and freight wagon drivers braved the way with horses.

According to the Louisville Weather Bureau statement eight inches of snow fell in that vicinity. There was possibly that much fell here, also it could not be accurately measured on account of the wind drifting the snow. Huge snow drifts were banked up on the sidewalks and in some places the drifts were impassable.

This is said to have been the deepest snow since the winter of 1917-18 when pedestrians walked through snow trenches for weeks.

The bright warm sun-shine on Sunday morning made a rise in temperature and the snow melted rapidly under its rays. However, there has only been a slight change in the temperature since Saturday.

Mr. J. W. Pate, of the Cloverport Ferry Co., stated that there were no flood warnings sent out and the snow would not make a rise in the Ohio river. A slight rise is expected here Wednesday. The river is said to be rising above Cincinnati.

Mr. John Phelon, of Cloverport, was one of the buyers on the floor Friday, and bought most of the burley. There were the usual number of buyers from Owensboro. Quite a good many of the farmers attended the sale too.

BARGAIN SEEKERS BRAVE WEATHER

Snow Storm no Hindrance in Getting 1¢ Broom. Golden Rule's Reduction Sale Continues.

Braving Saturday's severe storm there were considerably more than thirty-five women who made a mad rush for the Golden Rule Store at the nine o'clock hour in order to be one of the thirty-five to get a $1 broom for 1¢. But there were several who didn't exactly know the ins and outs of getting a free bargain and were left without. At any rate it was an unusual sight to see the lucky thirty-five going about the store carrying their brooms and looking for more bargains.

Considering the disagreeableness of the weather, the first day's sales at the Golden Rule's great stock reducing sale, were gratifying to the manager. The sale continues through this week.

The additional saleswomen employed at the Golden Rule for this week are: Misses Mary Whitehead, Mary Meyers, Carrie Tucker, Lelia Tucker and Ella Smith. Miss Frances Shephard, book-keeper for Cohen's Department Stores, of Jeffersonville, is here assisting in the book-keeping work.

L. & N. TRAINS DETOURED VIA TEXAS

Span of Bridge Over Barren River Near Bowling Green Gives Away and Handicaps Traffic.

Due to a span of the L. & N. railroad bridge over Barren River near Bowling Green, giving away on last Tuesday afternoon, the Louisville and Nashville through freight and passenger Southbound trains have been detoured over the L. H. & St. L. railroad for a week.

The span collapsed after a wheel on the tender of the engine of a north bound freight broke. The engine got across safely but when the first freight car struck the derail it crashed through the bridge and five or six other cars followed it.

There were no accidents or death as a result of the wreck. But on Wednesday afterwards, Daniel Cornwell, a carpenter, standing nearby was killed by flying metal which struck him when the bridge was being dynamited. Another man was seriously injured at the same time and died later as a result of accidents.

The wreck is said to have dealt traffic one of the most serious blows it has had in several decades over the L. & N. line.

With the L. & N. freight and passenger trains and those of the L. H. & St. L. R. R. too, there have been between thirty and forty trains passing through Cloverport in the past week. The L. & N. freight trains are made up of twenty-five to thirty cars.

Despatcher M. M. Denton of the local telegraph office at the shops has received as many as twenty train orders in eight hours in the last six days.

COOK WITHDRAWS FROM RACE AS REPRESENTATIVE.

On the advice of some of the leaders of the Republican party in this Legislative district I have decided not to be a candidate for the office of Representative from this district. Since my announcement I have met with hearty support from many Republicans in both this and Breckinridge county. It is needless for me to say that I appreciate this support from my friends more than I can express. But to make the race as things now stand could only result in endangering Republican success in the district this fall and as success of the party is stronger in me than my personal ambition, I have decided to withdraw and leave the field clear, so that there will be no party fight in the primary, thus insuring the election of a Republican from this district. Again extending my sincere thanks to my many friends who have given me assurance of their support for the office.

I am respectfully,
JOHN COOK.
